

Health and Safety Policy:

FBN aims to ensure a safe and healthy work environment for its employees at all time

OBJECTIVE

- Ensure that all workers are provided with the required protective gear.
- Appropriate training and induction is provided to workers prior to operating a machine.
- Machinery risk factors are minimized through protective covers and regular maintenance.
- Take adequate protective steps to prevent accidents and injuries related to the production floors by adhering of all related legal compliance.
- Respective Head of the Department is directly responsible for ensuring that the health and safety of all employees at their workplace is maintained.